Meet Mike Largent - Bottom, a weaver

Mike Largent was born in 1987 in Bayfield, CO. A recent CSU graduate and theater major, Mike has enjoyed many wonderful roles at CSU. This past academic year he received Irene Ryan nominations for his lead performance in Bertolt Brecht's "The Caucasian Chalk Circle," and yet another for his performance in Shakespeare's "Much Ado About Nothing."

Since graduating in May, he's been trying to spend some time making money to move to LA where he will further pursue his acting carrier.

Mike is looking forward to playing the ridiculous role of Bottom with a cast of CSU superstars. Says Largent, "I'm looking forward to making the audience crack up - it's really a funny play."

Mike's favorite part of the production is "The lion's roar - It's played extempore. Please come and find out what all the halabaloo is about!"

There are so many things that make this production unique and Mike has been impressed with [director] Walt Jone's ability to play with practical magic. "I think the audience will enjoy the clever and not-so-clever tricks throughout!"
